EMILY B. GREY APPOINTED VICE CHAIR OF STRATEGIC ACTIVITIES IN THE AMERICAN HEALTH LAWYERS ASSOCIATION'S HOSPITALS AND HEALTH SYSTEMS PRACTICE GROUP

Emily B. Grey, a partner at Breazeale, Sachse & Wilson, has been appointed to the position of Vice Chair of Strategic Activities in the American Health Lawyers Association's Hospitals and Health Systems Practice Group. At the AHLA Annual Meeting Emily was also recognized for her leadership of the Public Health System Affinity Group as Chair (2013-2014) and Vice Chair (2012-2013).

As BSW's Healthcare Section Leader, Emily is responsible for business development and strategic planning initiatives of the Healthcare Industry Team. Grey is very active both professionally and civically, and has served in leadership roles throughout the Baton Rouge community.

The American Health Lawyers Association (AHLA) is the nation's largest nonpartisan educational organization devoted to legal issues in the health care field. The Association's more than 12,700 members practice in a variety of settings in the health care community.

BSW was founded in Baton Rouge in 1928. Today, BSW is a multi-specialty law firm with 70 attorneys serving the legal and business needs of people and companies throughout Louisiana. The firm has offices in Baton Rouge, New Orleans, and Covington. For more information, please contact Margaret A. Martin, 225-376-3640.
