CLAY COUNTRYMAN APPOINTED VICE CHAIR OF THE AMERICAN BAR ASSOCIATION HEALTH LAW SECTION HEALTH REFORM COMMITTEE

Baton Rouge, LA— Clay Countryman, partner in the Baton Rouge office of Breazeale, Sachse & Wilson, L.L.P. and member of the firm’s health care section, was appointed the Vice Chair of the American Bar Association Health Law Section’s Health Reform Committee. Clay was also appointed Chair of the ABA Health Law Section Medical Legal Partnerships Committee and serves as a member of the governing council of the ABA Health Law Section. The council is the governing board of the ABA Health Law Section, which has over 11,000 members nationally and represents all segments of the healthcare industry.

With nearly 400,000 members, the American Bar Association is one of the largest voluntary professional membership organizations in the world. As the national voice of the legal profession, the ABA works to improve the administration of justice, promotes programs that assist lawyers and judges in their work, accredits law schools, provides continuing legal education, and works to build public understanding around the world of the importance of the rule of law.
