DANI BOREL RECOGNIZED BY THE AMERICAN BAR ASSOCIATION'S HEALTH LAW SECTION WITH THE EMERGING YOUNG LAWYERS IN HEALTHCARE AWARD

Baton Rouge, LA— Breazeale, Sachse & Wilson, L.L.P. is pleased to announce that Danielle Borel will be recognized by the American Bar Association's Health Law Section with an Emerging Young Lawyers in Healthcare Award at the 20th Annual Emerging Issues in Healthcare Conference being held March 13-16, 2019 at the JW Marriott in Orlando, Florida. The ABA recognizes Dani for a broad range of achievement, vision, leadership, and legal and community service in health law. The award will be presented by the Section Chair, Alexandria Hien McCombs, during her State of the Section presentation on Friday, March 15.

The American Bar Association Health Law Section is the voice of the national health law bar within the ABA. Its 10,600 strong members from across the United States represent clients in all segments of the health care industry, including physicians, hospitals and other institutional providers, teaching and research organizations, managed care organizations and other third-party payors, pharmaceutical companies and device manufacturers. Dani is a member of the ABA Health Law Section and serves as a Vice Chair of the Distance Learning Committee.

Dani is also a member of Breazeale, Sachse & Wilson's health law section. Her principal areas of practice include: healthcare provider licensing and payment disputes; federally qualified health centers; trademark disputes; unfair trade practices and unfair competition; contract disputes; and general business and commercial issues. Dani also represents pharmaceutical companies in opioid and general litigation brought by municipalities and counties. In her free time, Dani serves on the Board of Directors and as the chairman of the Baton Rouge Advisory Board for Lighthouse Louisiana.
