EMILY B. GREY SELECTED FOR 2011-12 AHLA LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM

Baton Rouge, LA– Emily B. Grey, a partner at Breazeale, Sachse & Wilson, is one of only two attorneys nationwide selected to participate in the Leadership Development Program of the American Health Lawyers Association's Hospitals and Health Systems (HHS) Practice Group for the 2011-12 Program Year.

The highly competitive program is intended to foster the development of HHS Practice Group members' leadership skills by providing opportunities to become more involved with the Practice Group's leadership through interaction and project participation. Each participant is assigned to either the chair or a vice chair of the Practice Group for two six-month rotations, during which the participant learns the duties of their assigned leader's position and assists them in completing their responsibilities to the Practice Group.

As BSW's Healthcare Section Leader, Grey is responsible for all the business development and strategic planning initiatives of the Healthcare Industry Team. She also serves on the American Bar Association's House of Delegates on behalf of the Baton Rouge Bar Association (BRBA), where she represents thousands of area lawyers and the BRBA at the national level. Grey is very active both professionally and civically, and serves in leadership roles throughout the Baton Rouge community.
